

SUMMARY OF CV

Laone is a Chartered Development Finance Analyst with international experience in Banking and Finance. Her expertise include investment analysis, risk management, financial policy formulation and deriving insights from data analytics. She has delivered strategic projects aimed at creating operational efficiencies and financial value for financial institutions.

In her current role as an Investment Analyst at the Trade and Development Bank (TDB) she has been instrumental facilitating the Bank's success in delivering development impact in the Africa Franco-Lusophone region across the agriculture, financial services, infrastructure, energy and trade sectors. Prior to joining TDB she held management roles at First National Bank of Botswana and Standard Chartered Bank where she led a dynamic teams and contributed to effective credit risk and portfolio management.

Laone holds a Master of Commerce in Development Finance from the University of Cape town Graduate School of Business, a Bachelor of Arts in Finance from the University of Botswana, a certificate in Development Monitoring and Evaluation in Africa from University of Witwatersrand, a certificate in Enterprise Risk Management from the Botswana Accountancy College and is an alumnus of the Stellenbosch University Business School Management Development Program.

Laone has excelled as a contributor and thought leader in finance and development and has received awards from prestigious institutions such as the Stellenbosch University Business School, Botswana Institute of Bankers, Southern African Development Community (SADC) most recently TDB Group Presidents award.