

Josephine Mensah -Kane has worked with Palladium group for more than a decade, where she held the post of, an administrator, a finance officer, office manager and a grants associate. Prior to working with Palladium group, Josephine worked with several organisations including, Ghana Commercial Bank and Ghana Health Insurance.

She has a wealth of experience in financial control, financial management and budgeting, forecasting, risk management, due diligence or compliance assessment, grantees spot check or auditing, office management etc. She has led high performing teams in the implementation of costing frameworks, and development of processes ensuring best value for money.

Josephine holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Administration (Banking and Finance) from Central University, Master of Philosophy in Development Finance from GIMPA. Josephine also holds a certificate course in Occupational Health and Safety by Nebosh, UK.