

MMABATHO HANTISE CA(SA), CDFA

Mmabatho is an Associate Director in Strategy and Transactions (SaT) in the Transaction Diligence team at Ernst & Young (EY). Mmabatho gained experience in various industries, having completed her articles in the Mining and Metals industry at EY, and then transitioning to work for an asset management company. Her more recent experience before transitioning was in the Financial Services sector, with a special focus on banking clients and expertise in auditing IFRS 9. Mmabatho serves as a board member at Ahisanang Sechaba NPO (Soccer Club) and AWCA (African Women Chartered Accountants). Mmabatho is also a SAICA 2021 Top 35 under 35 finalist. She is also involved with various initiatives such as Rotary, Women4Girls and Work (EY) through various platforms such as Siyakhula (which means “We Grow”) and the SHAPE Mentoring Platform to provide mentorship.