

Profile: Mary F. Wamaitha

Ms. Wamaitha is a development finance specialist and an admitted attorney in South Africa.

She has previously worked at the Industrial Development Corporation of South Africa (IDC) specialising in development funding in multi-sectoral projects in Africa. She has also worked with various global multilateral organisations, state-owned entities, and government departments.

Ms. Wamaitha holds a Master's degree in Development Finance, an LLB (Law) degree and a Bachelor's in Psychological Studies. Ms. Wamaitha is passionate about the positive trajectory of the African continent and is continuously seeking new frontier markets and industries which will accelerate the growth of the region.

Email: marywamaitha12@gmail.com